More about Connections Community Support Programs, Inc. (Connections)

Connections is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization that has been providing community-based housing, health care and employment services in Delaware since 1985. The mission of Connections is to provide a comprehensive array of health care, housing, and employment opportunities that help individuals and families to achieve their own goals and enhance our communities. Through our housing, employment, health care, and treatment programs, we will serve more than 35,000 unduplicated individuals this year in more than 100 locations throughout Delaware, including New Castle, Kent, and Sussex counties. The services we provide are available to anyone in Delaware who needs them, regardless of where they live, the extent of their problems, or their ability to pay. Connections' programs are accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities (CARF). CARF accreditation guarantees that our programs have passed an in-depth review, which takes place every three years to ensure continued compliance and exceptional treatment services to the individuals we serve.
